I. Freegift Holbrook Perry was born in Connecticut about 1770 and remained a resident of his native state until about nineteen years of age, when he migrated to Washington County, New York and was there married to Chloe Bennett. (It is supposed she was a native of Washington Co., New York. She was born June 25, 1787 and died October 5, 1875.) Circumstances afterward led him to change his location to the Province of Ontario, Canada, of which he was a resident at the time of the breaking out of the War of 1812. He then returned to the States and settled near the town of Lyme, Jefferson County, New York, where he purchased a tract of heavily timbered land, on which stood a saw mill and a block house. He utilized the mill and cleared a portion of the land, then sold and purchased again about two miles distant. There he built a log house which served as a shelter for his family for a number of years and wherein he breathed his last in September 1819. (Of Lung Fever.) The mother was left with a family of five children, namely, Martha Elizabeth, David Thurston, Freegift Holbrook Jr., Henry Ainsworth, and Ezra Thompson. She continued to live on the homestead in Jefferson County, New York for five years after the death of her husband. He is buried near Lyme, New York.

The above was taken from the Portrait and Biographical Album of Stephenson County, Illinois, published in 1888. Data must have been given by Ezra, the youngest child. Therefore, it is correct.

Chloe Bennett Perry later married Mr. Justus McElwain and came to Illinois. He died and is buried somewhere in the timber south of the Old School Baptist Church in West Point Township, Stephenson County, Illinois. They intended to make a cemetery there, but he was the first and only one ever buried there.

She then went to live with her children for years, most of the time with her youngest son, Ezra, at whose home she died October 5, 1875 and is buried in a little cemetery back of the Old School Baptist Church. She was a very fine seamstress and for years supported herself with her needle and by knitting. The above was told me by Aunt Mary Ezra Perry several years before she died. Date of birth and death of Chloe Bennett Perry was taken from her tombstone.

She was a Scotch woman and, as I remember her, (though I was only five) she was very tall and very straight with high cheek bones, but a kindly, old lady. I distinctly remember going to her funeral at the Church. We all called her "Grandma Mac".

The children were as follows: (Belle Euphema Perry, Uncle David's girl, told me that Grandma Mac told her, her first children were a pair of twins and died in infancy. There is no record of it.)

1. I Martha Elizabeth Perry born in New York, January 14, 1806.
2. I Freegift Holbrook Perry Jr. born in Canada, June 25, 1813.
3. I David Thurston Perry born in Whitestown, Oneida County, New York, December 25, 1809.
4. I Henry Ainsworth Perry born in Cape Vincint, Jefferson County, New York, May 4, 1815.
5. I Ezra Thompson Perry born near Lyme, Jefferson County, New York, September 2, 1817.

1. I Martha Elizabeth Perry, born in the state of New York, January 14, 1806, married James Woodruff in New York state, later came to Illinois, where he died a few years later and is buried in the Northwest corner of the Original Morseville Cemetery. He was the first to be buried there. (So Uncle William Perry told me.)

Martha taught school and was a very fine seamstress. When only sixteen years old she did her day's work of spinning before and after school. She also did much knitting and later learned the Tailor trade and was a fine Tailoress. She made William Whitson Sr's. wedding suit. She had one son, Henry Woodruff.

She married for her second husband, William Shimmons who came from the Isle of Man, but was a resident of Illinois at the time of marriage. He died some years later and she married the third time to Jeremiah Clark of Eleroy, Illinois. She died in Eleroy, Illinois October 22, 1870 at the age of sixty-four years, eleven months, and eight days, and is buried in the Eleroy Cemetery just southeast of the entrance gate, beside Nancy and Polly, first and second wives of Mr. Clark. He is also buried there on the north of his three wives. All have tombstones alike. When she was buried, there was no one left to go back to the house. She gave my mother, a pepper box that came from the Isle of Man, also a little mustard pot, and ladle for her name. Mother gave them to me and I still have them in 1946.

The last eleven were all born
Stockton, Illinois.

When they landed from the boat the only money he had was the five dollars of Mary Jane's. They came by oxen team from Chicago to his brother David's home in Stephenson County, Illinois. They first settled in Wards Grove Township almost straight east from where the first Stockton Post Office was held and from where I am writing this. There, two more children were born---William and Marion.

In 1841 he bought a homestead from the government for $1.25 an acre in what is now Stockton Township, Illinois, then known as the lost section. He cut and hewed the logs and erected a log house by the Big Spring just west of the creek that is east of R.N. Batchelder's house. Between 1854 and 57 he built a large frame house, west, and several rods back from the road.

In 1885 he built a smaller frame house right at the road. Thus, they lived on this same homestead continuously for 56 years excepting one year when they lived south of Morseville. Grandmother was a short, fleshy woman, very industrious, and ever-ready to help those in trouble. If anything surprise her she would say, "I jolly". For years they attended the Baptist Church at Stockton Center, but later leaned toward the Universalist faith. For nearly a year before she died she suffered greatly from a rose cancer on her face.

Grandfather was a tall, slender man, quick-tempered, but soon over it. He was ever-ready to help a neighbor or friend, and always taking someone and giving them a home for a spell. They were the parents of fourteen children. When he was angry he could swear like a pirate, but never when not riled up. His by-word was "by gol all firelocks". He was a farmer by occupation, also a carpenter.

He was School Director a number of years. He had a brown team of horses of which he was very proud and fond of. Their names were, "Luce and Walter".

One night the team was stolen from the stable while he was attending a meeting at the school house. At that time people, besides being pioneers, had to contend with bands of horse thieves and all kinds of lawlessness. For weeks he was in the saddle almost night and day hunting his horses. They finally caught the thief, but only after they had a rope around his neck ready to hand him would he tell where the team was.

They were found in a livery barn at La Salle, Illinois. Although they had been dyed a coal black, he and the horses recognized each other at once. The livery man having paid a good price for them did not want to give them up, but was compelled to as Mr. Perry proved they were his property by his private mark.

He died at his home at the age of eighty-two years, eight months, and twenty-nine days, after a brief illness caused by apoplexy, just three weeks after his wife was buried. Thus, their parting was brief. Both are buried in the family lot in the Morseville Cemetery, Morseville, Jo Daviess County, Illinois. The children follow.

The last eleven children were all born in Stockton Township, Jo Daviess County, Illinois on the old homestead.

V-4' Asa J. Perry was first buried in the field east of the ~~farm~~ where Karl Klett lives in 1946. H. Johnson said Uncle Bill Perry told me that they started a cemetery there. A Mr. Bixby owned it later and did not want a cemetery there. When Uncle Bill was about fourteen he helped Grandpa move Asa's body to Morseville, to the cemetery there. Mr. Bixby hired Uncle Oscar Wheelock to break prairie for him and when he discovered the graves he told Bixby to break up his own graveyard. Most of the bodies were moved elsewhere.

III-4' William Wallace Perry, eldest son of Henry A. and Adaline L. Wheelock Perry was born in Wards Grove Township, Jo Daviess County, Illinois.

December 31, 1839. He was the first white boy born in that precinct. He always said he was born the last day of the year, the last day of the month, the last day of the week, and the last hour in the day. He died August 28, 1927 within three miles of where he was born.

He was married to Lydia Emerette Phelps, November 1, 1860 at Gratiot, Lafayette County, Wisconsin. They were the parents of seven children. Lydia Emerette Phelps was born September 24, 1845 in Pitcher, Chenango County, New York. She died February 25, 1918 in New Hartford, Iowa. She is buried in the New Hartford Cemetery. She was a very tall, large woman, always jolly and kind-hearted. We called her "Aunt Net".

In 1864 they moved to Butler County, Iowa and in 1867 they moved to Missouri, driving a "six-horse" team composed of four cows and two oxen. The oxen were next to the wagon. They had milk to use by milking the cows on the way. They had a covered wagon. The first camp was on an Island between the main branch and the west fork of the Iowa River. They had to remain on this Island five days on account of the overflowing of the river. Being very courageous he came some years after with his family, (in a Ford?) no, a Prairie Schooner all the way from Missouri to Illinois to visit his parents.

When they started back my folks went a ways with them taking me along, just a tiny "Tot". When they stopped for dinner, I said, "Uncle Bill, where is Missouri"? He, in after years often laughed about it. In 1881 they moved back to Iowa. In 1885 they moved to Ackley, Iowa. In 1894 they moved to a farm near Swanton, Iowa where he resided till 1916. Then they moved to New Hartford, Iowa. He united with the Universalist Church at Stockton, Illinois, May 18, 1919. He was a large man with snapping, black eyes. They had a jolly snap to them. He was a man respected by all who knew him. He was an honest, true citizen.

Politically he was a staunch Democrat. In July 1927 he, with his daughter Lettie Camp, came to Illinois to attend the Batchelder-Hunt-Perry Reunion.

After the reunion he visited all his brothers, sisters, nieces, and nephews, and in August came to visit his niece, Adaline Reed, on Monday, expecting to start for Iowa on Thursday. Tuesday evening he was taken with a severe chill and two weeks later, after all that loving care could, he on Sunday A.M., August 28, 1927, went to his Heavenly Home. On Monday short services were held at the Universalist Church in Stockton, Illinois. The body was then taken by auto to Galena, Illinois and from there over to the I.C. Railroad and on to his home in New Hartford, Iowa, where services were held on Wednesday from the M.E. Church. He was buried beside his wife in the New Hartford Cemetery. The day he was taken sick he said to me, "Well, by Grab, I have seen every one of my brothers, sisters, nieces, and nephews and now I am ready to go home ". The children are as follows.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre began housekeeping in a log house, standing on the hillside on the west side of the road just north of the first stream north of H. A. Perry's house. The house had been moved from the original old log house on the east eighty. It had been used for a dwelling and also for a school house.

In the spring of 1873 they, with their three children, with a team and covered wagon, and thirty head of cattle started for Iowa. Marian drove the team most of the way as he had to drive the cattle. They made the trip in eighteen days and settled near Oak Field, Audubon County, Iowa, now known as Brayton, Iowa. They lived there two years, then moved to Cass County near Atlantic, remaining there eight years. In the spring of 1882 they bought a farm of 120 acres near Audubon, Audubon County, Iowa and lived there eighteen years. The school house close to them was called Melville Center as it was in Melville Center Township.

In the summer of 1883 Aunt Marian organized the first Sunday School ever held in that township in Audubon County, Iowa. She was S.S. Superintendant, also teacher of the young men's Bible class until about 1891 or 2 when Rev. A.V. Knepper came to Audubon to preach. He also began preaching at the Melville Center school house. In 1929 the church was still standing and used for Services, a monument to these faithful Christian Pioneers. VI-4' Martha Elizabeth Perry (Henry, Freegift) was born December 25, 1846 in the old log house on the Perry Homestead in Stockton Township, Jo Daviess County, Illinois. She married at the Court House in Monroe, Wisconsin, July 4, 1868 to Rinaldo Batchelder, born in Montville, Geauga County, Ohio, May 9, 1847. She died November 23, 1924 in Stockton, Illinois a few rods from her birth place, having lived her entire life on the same farm excepting one year in Monroe, Wisconsin. She received her education in the rural schools, first in a log school house near her father's home, then at what is now know as Spring Valley District 51, one-half mile east of her home. When a girl at home, she wove denim and homespun dresses made from cloth spun and woven by the early pioneer women. Her own mother had a spinning wheel and spun her own yarn. (Now, in 1945, I have the wheel.) Martha worked out by the week when a girl and not needed at home. She worked a long time for Mrs. Harrison Lepper. She was a fine seamstress and did much sewing. She was tall and slender, built like her father. She had dark hair and wyes and was a good looking woman. She was named after her Aunt Martha, and received a little mustard cut and ladle for her name (which I now have.) The first year of her married life she spent in Monroe, Wisconsin. They then moved back to Illinois and worked for her father for a while, living in one part of his house and I was born there.

She was converted at A Series of Meetings conducted by Elder Tory at Stockton Center, Illinois during the winter of 1866 and joined the Baptist Church by immersion the following spring. In the spring of 1886 she joined the M.E. Church at Morseville, Illinois and transferred to the Stockton M.E. Church some six years later. Of this church and Sunday School she was a faithful and consistent member until death called her Home. She lived a useful life--a life of Practical Christianity, warm hearted, and affectionate, ever-reaching out a helping hand to those around her. She was known for her hospitality and not calling stranger left her door hungry or cold. She was a mother to all in her kindly way of hospitality and friendship. She was faithful to the Lord Jesus and to his servant Pastors as well. Nothing was too much trouble for her if she could make someone happy by doing it. She was a faithful helpmate in every sense of the word..

The young folks in the neighborhood would gather in her home evenings and have a jolly time. I can remember when I was a small girl, how they would come and at the gate would call out, "popcorn and hickory nuts". One winter Mother popped two bushels of popcorn and father cracked three bushel of hickory nuts. What good times they had.

After Aunt Matilda died, Uncle Wm. Batchelder and children, Harry and Gertrude, lived with us for several years. Harry called it home until he was married. Mattha and Rinaldo made a Home to raise their family. In 1877 they bought 80 acres of land from her father, paying him $2500 for it. They cleared a place in the wouthwest corner and built a frame one-and-a-half story house, 16 by 24 ft. They dug a well, built a small stable with a thatch roof. They moved into their new home the latter part of January 1878, when their son, Bert, was three weeks old.

Father hauled the lumber from Savanna, Illinois with a team and wagon, twenty-five miles away. He left home at three A.M., rode the hounds of the wagon to Savanna, and the load of lumber back, not getting home until nine P.M. A few years later he built a barn.

Mother helped him make hay, pick corn, milk, and did all kinds of farm work. They reared and educated their family.

In 1890 they remodeled the house and added more to it. Later they purchased 75 acres more land with a house on it. After the death of his wife, her sister, Laura, kept house for him for nine years. Then he was taken sick and his daughter, Adaline, and husband, cared for him from March 1933 till he passed away September 15, 1935, at the age of eighty-eight years and scarcely any gray hairs. He was a small, stout man, but he was a good Daddy, faithful to his church and Sunday School as long as his health permitted.

He was converted the winter of 1885 and was immersed by Rev. Carson in 1887. He joined the Methodist Church at Morseville, later transferring to the M.E. Church in Stockton.

He was born in Montville, Geauga County, Ohio, the son of Benjamin N. and Eliza Hunt Batchelder. He came to Illinois with his brother, Wm., in the winter 1865 when he was only nineteen years old. In 1889 he went to Ohio to visit his father and stayed three weeks. He always took in anyone needing a home or who was cold or hungry.

a-VI-4' Frances Adaline Batchelder (M., H., F.,) was born in the old house back from the road of H. A. Perry's, September 10, 1869 in Stockton Township, Jo Daviess County, Illinois and lived there with her parents and grandparents till about two years old. Then they moved to a little house, boarded up and down, located south of there and south of their new home. They lived there till January 1878. It was there I threw the apple at Spen Tucker, missing him and breaking the window out and Dad said, "Adaline, by the dings". Scared me, but he didn't whip me. My Uncle Ezra had to watch the sheep and I used to go with him. One day I coaxed him to go to school with me and Ma scolded me because my dress was dirty.

I attended Spring Valley School till the fall of 1884. I went to the Greenvale School all that winter to Miss Gesner, a splendid teacher. The next winter I went to the Brick School in Rush to the same teacher. I was fitting myself to teach. In the fall of 1886 I started in Morseville School and went two months.

I was staying with Rev. and Mrs. Knepper. They moved to Shannon and I went with them and attended the Shannon High School, graduating in a class of thirteen June 1, 1888. I worked for my board during that time. The last three months I lived with Mrs. Atkins, a dear old lady.

In the spring of 1889 I began teaching at Gid's School in Wards Grove for the Summer Term at $19 per month. I boarded with Aunt Clara Hager. That winter I taught at Pitcherville, north of Stockton. I boarded at Mr. Winters.

October 1, 1890, I was married at my home to Septimus T. Fader by Rev. A. V. Knepper at twelve noon. Forty were present. Harry, Gertie, Huldah, and George Miller stood up with us. We went to Rush to live. Had expected to go to Iowa, but got left. September 1892 he decided he did not want a wife and we separated.

In the spring of 1893 I began teaching again and taught ten years in the rural schools. Two years of that time was spent in my home school, Spring Valley. During the winters of 1899 and 1900 I attended the N.I.N.S. School at Valparaiso, Indiana. They were happy days.

In the fall of 1885 I was converted and joined the Church at Morseville on Probation. While at Shannon I taught a class of boys in Sunday School. In the fall of 1889 I was baptised by immersion by Rev. Lawfer and joined the church in full connection.

April 10, 1906 I married Pirl Erie Reed at Geneva, Illinois in the Court House by the Justice of the Peace, Mr. Johnson. The next day we went to work for Mr. and Mrs. Al Lawrence near Elgin, Illinois. I, for $3.00 a week and Pirl for $21 per month. We worked there till November 1906 and then came back to Stockton and moved into Dad's little house up on the "Old Foster Place" of fifteen acres and still reside there in 1945.

In 1933 we went down to Father's and took care of him till he passed away in 1935. We came back to our little house March 1936.

Frances Adaline Reed

Adalines' eye sight failed her, going completely blind, she left her home on June 20, 1955 to go to the Sunny Side Nursing Home in Warren, Ill. On May 27, 1956 she left the Home to be cared for in the private home of Mrs. Albert 'Ruth' Gross in Warren. Here she was very tenderly cared for by Ruth until she passed away on Tuesday, Aug. 5, 1958.

She had to spend her blind days setting in a chair, but kept in personal touch with her many friends, by carrying on her own correspondence, by writing, using a ruler with holes in the ends, that fit over pegs in the edge of a board. She used the ruler to guide her pencil in a straight line.

Enjoyed company and a call from her minister, up until five o'clock of the afternoon that she passed away. Mentioning of having pains around her heart at that time, she quitely died at six o'clock. Last rites were held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock in the Stockton Methodist Church, the Rev.D. James Fitzhugh officiating. Norman Vanderheyden sang "In The Garden" and "The Old Rugged Cross".

Mrs. Carl Klett, Mrs. Florence Hanson, Mrs. Albert Gross, and Mrs. Ray Scotchbrook had charge of the flourel tributes. She was laid to rest beside Pirl in the Ladies Union cemetery. Casket bearers were Earl Yungbluth, Carl Klett, William Larson, Clyde Carpenter, George Schuller and Roger Walker.

In 1890 I transferred to the M.E. Church in Stockton. For a year I was assistant teacher of the Delta Alpha S.S. class. In 1924 I was asked to be teacher of the class and accepted the task. I have taught it continuously for 21 years up to 1945.

I have dark hair and eyes. I have been told I was good looking when a girl. My usual weight is 107 lbs. I have very few gray hairs. We attend Sunday School and Church regularly, try to keep our home neat and tidy, be kind and friendly, to live, and let live, and do what we think is right as God shows us the way.

We have no children of our own, but tried to partly raise three, Jenny,, Ted, and Honor, the best we knew how. They are very near and dear to us even if they have given us some heart-aches.

Our Uncle Albert made his home with us for thirteen years and worked at the Carpenter trade.

Our home is always open to Pastors and friends and those in need. We try to make our lives, lives of Service to God and to others.

Pirl's life has sure been a life of Service. He worked his father-in-law's farm for seventeen continuous years, going nearly a mile each day to do chores and the farm work.

Uncle Bruce was rather wild and reckless in his younger days. He never had a fair chance at home. He had a "heart as big as a haystack". He made his own living from the age of fourteen--kicked and battered about. He had many good qualities, and when his mother got sick he came and stood by, and cared for her to the last. Mother always took his part. He was one of my favorite Uncles. He only lived a year after caring for his mother. He had dark hair and blue eyes, and was always jolly and full of fun. I remember the night he came when his mother was sick. Trains made such poor connections. He had walked many miles and said to me as he came to the door, "Am I too late, is Ma still alive?" The children follow.

Poem written by Elsie Perry

"Windows"

My view from shining windows
Takes in miles of grass and trees,
Of orchards and of corn fields,
And grain swaying in the breeze;
Shows the glistening rays of sunrise
Upon the early dew;
Or glowing sunset's red and gold
Where sky had just been blue;
Or evening moonlight over all
With here and there a star;
The gleaming lights of neighbors close
And dimmer ones afar;
A flower nodding on its stem
Within my garden small,
A drooping vine with hanging fruit,
A robin on the wall;
A sunbeam peeping through the clouds
A rainbow clear and grand;
While drinking in these splendors,
At my window heir, I stand.
O! thank God for windows
That give me such a view;
For shining, shining windows
To see much beauty through!

Elsie Perry.

A poem read at Aunt Belle Gage's funeral by Rev. Cosgrove.

"THE GOOD GRANDMOTHER"

O! softly waves the Silver hair
From off that aged brow;
That crown of glory, worn so long,
A fitting crown is now.

Fold reverently the weary hands,
That toiled so long and well;
And while your tears of sorrow fall
Let sweet Thanksgiving swell.

That life work stretching o'er long years
A varied web has been;
With silver strands by sorrow wrought
And sunny gleams between.

These silver hairs stole slowly on
Like flakes of falling snow,
That wrap the green earth lovingly
When Autumn breezes blow.

Each silver hair, each wrinkle there
Records some good deed done;
Some flower she cast along the way
Some sparks from love's bright sun.

How bright she always made the Home!
It seemed as if the floor
Was always flecked with spots of sun
And barred with brightness o'er.

The very falling of her steps
Made music as she went;
A loving song was on her lips;
The song of full content.

She's safe within her Father's house
"Where many mansions be".
O! pray that thus such rest may come
Dear hearts, to thee and me.

5' Ezra Thompson Perry (Freegift) was the youngest child of Freegift Holbrook Perry, Sr. and Chloe Bennette Perry, born at Lyme, Jefferson Co., New York September 2, 1817. He was two years old when his father died. He grew to manhood in New York and received his education from the pioneer schools taught in the log cabin. As soon as he was large enough he went out to work, farming at $5.00 per month, and was thus employed during the summer seasons until he was thirteen years old. After reaching his majority, he determined to seek his fortune in the West. On the sixteenth day of September 1839 he started for the Prairies of Illinois, embarking first on Lake Ontario, whence he journeyed to Lewiston, taking his first ride on the cars from there to Buffalo, New York.

Again availing himself of the water route, he not long after, reached Chicago, Illinois, which gave little promise of its future greatness, being composed simply of a few houses planted in the mud and visited by a varied assortment of people--Indians, traders, stock-drovers, and other numerous adventurers who passed through. From Chicago he started on foot for Stephenson County where two of his brothers had already located. He got an occasional ride, but tramped most of the way, arriving at his destination. He made his home with one of his brothers for some years and worked by the day or month.

Galena, Illinois was then but a hamlet, distinguished for its lead mines. It was the only market in either Stephenson or Jo Daviess County, Illinois. In 1842 he bought a claim on section thirty-two of what is now West Point Township, which he never entered, but made another claim on section thirty-five in the same township. Freeport had just started to be a town.

In 1845 he went to Jo Daviess County, and in company with his brother Henry, engaged in farming for a period of seven years, in the meantime securing the title to his last purchase, and making improvements as the time and opportunity afforded.

In the fall of 1841, October 17, in Illinois, he married Mary C. Howard, born March 21, 1825 in Jefferson County, New York. She was the daughter of Parker and Lovica (Boomer) Howard. This data was taken from the Stephenson County, Illinois History published in 1888. It must have been given either by Ezra or David, so it is probably correct.

Mother told me that Uncle Ezra and Aunt Mary lived on his brother Henry's farm in another log house near the big spring until 1852 when he built a house on his land, into which he moved, and resided for thirty-two years. He made extensive improvements and had an up-to-date farm and buildings. In 1884 he sold his farm and moved to Lena, Illinois. He kept himself well informed in regard to passing events and was always a man of decided opinions, though never offensive in the expressing of them. When first exercising the right of suffrage, he was a staunch adherent of the old "Whig Party," but after its abandonment, he became a staunch Republican. He was Township Supervisor for four years, also served as School Trustee and Director for a number of years. Religiously, he was a Baptist. He had a fine physique, was very tall, straight, and dignified looking. He had a kindly, jovial disposition.

He and his wife went to Hampton, Iowa, to visit their daughter, Lovica Lathan. While they were there he was stricken with diabetes and passed away November 4, 1895. He was buried at Lena, Illinois. The above was partly taken from a Hampton, Iowa paper.

Mrs. Perry, "Aunt Mary Ezra", as we always called her, because there were so many Mary's in the Perry family, was very energetic and had a remarkable memory. She was sorely afflicted with rheumatism for many years. After the death of her husband, she went to Hampton, Iowa, and resided with her daughter, Lovica, Mrs. Harvey Latham, until Lovica passed away. She then went to live with Mrs. Stella Wallace, a granddaughter, at whose home she passed away. She is buried at Lena, Illinois beside her husband. They had six children.

"The Perrys of Rhode Island. Tales of Silver Cree" can be obtained from the Goodspeed Book Shop, 90 Ashburton Place, Boston. Price, $3. The book is about 9" x 6 1/2" x 1 1/4" cloth cover. It deals with the ancestry and descendants of Christopher Raymond Perry but has no mention of your Holbrook 7 Perry. It is very interesting. I looked all through Vols. I, II and III of R.P. VI & records for a record for Chloe Bennett and Holbrook 4 Perry but could find neither. There were many Perrys in R.I., however, and of course many Perrys.

Copy of a letter received in March 1927
Concerning The Perry Families
3650 Central Ave.
Indianapolis Ind.

March 13-1927.

My dear Mrs Reed, -

Your letter sent thru the Boston Transcript has just been received. I am afraid I can not give you the information you wish. but it may help you some.

For ten years I have worked on the Perry Family mostly on the direct line. My husband's Mother was a Perry, a granddaughter of Elijah and Sarah Crocker Perry of Middleboro Mass. I have made many notes which I have kept. There have been a number of men, who have started a history of Ezra Perry of Sandwich but they have died and no history has been completed. I have been able to be in the East a lot and near Cape Cod but have never had time to stay long enough to dig into all the records. Many of the Mass. towns have had their Vital Records giving birth Marriages and deaths printed and these are to be found in most of the large libraries.

I find among my notes the marriage of Noah Perry and Anna Holbrook in May 1773. Noah was born Mar. 1748 the son of Oliver and Elizabeth (Steele) Perry. This is in Bellingham Suffolk Co. (part now Norfolk) Mass. In same town are many Holbrooks. My experience is that such a name as Holbrook Freegift Perry was given for a purpose. And this marriage is at right time.

I do not know how Oliver Perry could connect with the Ezra Perry family but I do not think the name Ezra is ever used in any other Perry family except

The Sandwich & Rehoboth Family.
Ezra and Jemima (Tittes) Perry of Rehoboth were in Onondago Co. New York in 1800.

I have the census of Mass in 1790
but not that of New York.

When I can get down to Library
I will look and see if Bellingham has any other records.

I think I would write to Transcript asking information of Holbrook
Freelgift and wife Eliza Bennett Mabel Perry married into Bennett family.

Do you know when they were married?

The Perry family went to Canada,
Vermont, (Maine in South Part) and in New York and over into Ohio.

If I find anything more, will write you.

Sincerely yours
Mrs Charles P. Lesh · Ora W. Lesh.
